

Domain Name Policy

1. We may refuse to register and/or to provide other Services in respect of any domain name that we consider to infringe any third party's intellectual property rights, rights of privacy, publicity or any other rights whatsoever, or to be obscene, libellous, defamatory or in any other way unlawful.
2. We will use all reasonable endeavours to ensure that any acceptable domain name you request is successfully registered on your behalf, but we do not warrant that any application will be successful. If we are unable to register any domain name you request, we will ask you for an alternative.
3. You must inform us, by e-mail, fax or using myfreecom.net within 24 hours of you becoming aware that any error has been made in the form of registration of a domain name.
4. Domain name renewal fees may be payable by you in the Initial Term and/or in any Renewed Term. If you do not pay your renewal fees when we request payment from you, your domain name will not be renewed and we will no longer be able to provide services to you. This will constitute a material breach of the Agreement on your part, entitling us to bring the Agreement to an end.
5. If this Agreement comes to an end, for any reason, our obligation to provide the services will come to an end. We will not be responsible for the renewal of any domain name registered on your behalf after that time. We will not release any domain name we have registered for you until we have received payment in full for all of the services [that is, a sum equal to the termination payment details of which are set out in the Terms & Conditions of the Agreement] together with an administration fee.
6. We may suspend, cancel or transfer a domain registration if we receive notice of a court order or arbitration award requiring such suspension, cancellation or transfer.
