

BizSite

The BizSite package includes the following features:

Page	Functionality
Home	Your Home page is the first page visitors will see when they visit your web site and it should provide them with a brief overview of your company's products or services and an indication of the content or purpose of the full website. Contact details should also be included as standard.
Contact Us	The contact form contains the following fields as standard, enabling your customers to contact you 24/7: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Email address • Name • Address • Postcode • Telephone Number • Nature of Enquiry
Location	This page is automatically created from your postcode, which activates a link to a detailed location map.
Services	Provide website visitors with a brief overview of your products/services with 2 images for illustration purposes.

Included as standard:

- Professional website design - based on a standard template, customised to reflect your corporate image/colours.
- .co.uk domain name
- Business email account accessed via webmail facility
- Technical support during office hours
- Control Panel facility with the following functions:
 - The ability to update all text on your website (except on the contact form).
 - The ability to change the images on your information pages
 - The ability to change MetaTag keywords and description (used by search engines for listing purposes)
 - Access to comprehensive website statistics.
- Marketing advice
- Scalability – all our products are scaleable which means they can grow as your business grows on the Internet.

And a Choice of one of the following bundles:

- Hosting, dial-up and email anti-virus
- Hosting, broadband and email anti-virus
- Hosting, dial-up, email anti-virus, and CountyWeb directory listing
- Hosting, dial-up, email anti-virus and Moreover Newsfeed