

F-PROT ANTIVIRUS LIMITED SITE LICENSE

Frisk Software International ("FSI") grants the Licensee ("Freecom.net GB plc) a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to use the F-Prot Antivirus software package ("F-Prot Antivirus"), effective from date of purchase. This package includes one or more of the following products: F-Prot Antivirus for Windows, F-Prot Antivirus for DOS, F-Prot Antivirus for Linux, or F-Prot Antivirus for FreeBSD. All rights not specifically granted here are reserved by FSI.

F-Prot Antivirus or parts of it may be installed on as many computers, owned, or operated by Licensee, as stated above. Additionally, as many copies may be made for backup purposes as necessary.

This license is effective until terminated, unless otherwise specified. Licensee may terminate it at any time by sending a written notice to FSI and destroying all copies of the software in use by Licensee. FSI may terminate the license if Licensee fails to pay required license fees.

LIMITED WARRANTY

FSI warrants that it is the copyright owner of the software included in the F-Prot Antivirus software package, and it has the unqualified right to make said software available to licensee and to grant this license.

FSI further warrants that software included in the F-Prot Antivirus software package does not and will not infringe any copyright, trade secret or other intellectual property rights of a third party, and that to the best of FSI's knowledge said software does not infringe any patent right of a third party.

FSI warrants that any physical copy of the software it provides to the Licensee, be it on CD-ROM disk or diskette, should be free of physical defects. Any defective copies will be replaced by FSI at no cost to Licensee.

FSI makes no express or implied warranties regarding the performance of software included in the F-Prot Antivirus software package, but will (at no charge to Licensee) use its best efforts to promptly correct any errors in said software that are reported by Licensee.

Should Licensee discover a new virus, unknown to FSI and send it to FSI, an updated version of the F-Prot Antivirus software package will be sent to Licensee at the earliest possible date.

Disputes arising in and out of the inception, application or interpretation of this license and the legal circumstances deriving there from shall be ultimately settled under the Rules of Conciliation and Arbitration of the International Chambers of Commerce by one or more arbitrators designed according to said rules. The proceedings shall be held in English.
